British Columbia Pharmacy Association Privacy Statement

At the British Columbia Pharmacy Association (BCPhA) our commitment to protecting the confidentiality and security of our members' Personal Information has and will always be a very integral part of our core values. We do not sell, trade or rent any Personal Information to any organization for any purpose at any time.

What is Personal Information?

Under the Personal Information Protection Act, Personal Information is broadly defined as information (data), oral, written or electronic, about an identifiable individual. Personal Information includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Name, home address, home telephone number, home fax number, home email
- Age, gender, family and marital status
- Identification numbers (such as Diploma, Social Insurance or driver's license)
- Financial and employment information
- Credit rating, payment records
- Medical and health information

What is Not Personal Information?

The name, title, business address, business telephone number, business fax number or business email address of an employee of an organization ("business card information") is not considered Personal Information. Any data that we have collected in which all the "personal identifiers" have been removed, making it impossible to determine the identity of the person to whom it relates, is also not considered Personal Information.

Why We Ask For Your Personal Information:

The BCPhA collects the following information, either directly or indirectly, to provide a variety of benefits and services to BCPhA members.

Demographic Information

Name, date of birth, home address, home telephone number, home fax number, home email address

Education Information

Diploma number, graduation year, date of CPBC licensure, additional certification

Financial Information

Payment records of membership and services (cheque or credit card)

Your Demographic Information is collected solely for your participation in BCPhA membership benefits and services, such as association communications and insurance information as well as maintaining a demographic profile of BCPhA members. Your Education Information confirms qualification for particular BCPhA membership categories. Your Financial Information is necessary for processing your BCPhA membership or providing services and is dependent upon the payment method that you select. Personal Information collected is disclosed only as required for BCPhA business and our contracts in place include privacy policies for your protection. We do not sell, trade or rent any Personal Information to any organization for any purpose at any time.

Privacy Information Officer

If you have any questions about the collection of your personal information, please call Cyril Lopez at 604-269-2869 or toll free at 1-800-663-2840 or email him at cyril.lopez@bcpharmacy.ca between 8:30am and 4:30pm Monday through Friday.

Consent Agreement

BCPhA wants to assure our members that we take care to protect your personal information in a manner that satisfies the Personal Information Privacy Act. Please see our website at www.bcpharmacy.ca for our Privacy Policies.

I have read this Privacy Statement explaining the purposes for which BCPhA collects my personal information and understand that these are solely to provide me BCPhA member services. As such, I agree and consent to the use and disclosure of my personal information for these purposes.

Membership Refund Policy

Pharmacist Membership

- When a pharmacist chooses to terminate their membership, no refund of the prepaid dues will be provided.
- When an individual pharmacist member is a manager of a corporate membership, a prorated refund is provided for the overlapping period of the two memberships. At the request of the corporate member and with the discretion of the CEO, exceptions can be made on a case-by-case basis.

Pharmacy Membership

- When a pharmacy wishes to terminate its membership, no refund of the prepaid dues will be provided. At the request of the pharmacy member and with the discretion of the CEO, exceptions can be made on a case-by-case basis.

CEO Discretion

- If the CEO determines that a refund should be made, the amount of the refund will be dependent upon the length of time remaining in the membership. If there is more than six months remaining, the amount refunded will be equal to six months of that membership. If there is less than six months remaining in the membership, nothing will be refunded.
