

When it comes to HPV,
don't wait to vaccinate

Getting the HPV vaccine when you're young can protect against several cancers later in life.

The HPV vaccine is most effective when given to youth ages 9-14, but it's still worth it for older teens and adults.

For your best chance of protection, don't wait.

Get HPV vaccine info at healthlinkbc.ca/hpv

